

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS PRIORITY CLASS “D”

The following is a list of questions and answers for the Fund. These questions and answers will only cover information specific to Priority Class “D” claims.

How many active Priority Class “D” claims does the Fund have?

The Fund has 506 active claims in this Priority Class.

Have any Priority Class “D” claim Letters of Commitment (LOCs) been suspended?

- The Fund has suspended 127 LOCs in the Priority Class at this time by a letter dated January 5, 2009.

Will new LOCs be issued for Priority Class “D”?

At this time, the Fund will not issue any new LOCs to this Priority Class until sufficient revenue is received, and all LOC suspensions have been lifted.

What is the payment order for Priority Class “D”?

This Priority Class is the last priority for payment. However, payments will be made and limited to the annual 14% minimum requirement as cited in law.

How are payments being processed and paid for Priority Class “D” claims?

The Fund is processing and paying the claims in this Priority Class by date of receipt of the Reimbursement Request (RR) up to the 14% minimum requirement.

As RRs are reviewed, they will be placed on hold pending the availability of funds. A letter, along with the Payment Summary, will be sent to notify claimants that their RR’s review was completed and their payment has been credited to their claim.

Can Priority Class “D” claims with an LOC suspension submit RRs?

Yes, claims receiving an LOC suspension letter dated January 5, 2009 can submit RRs only for costs incurred through January 15, 2009.

How much revenue goes to Priority Class “D” claims?

This Priority Class receives 14% of the revenue for payments. In order to remain within this level, 127 LOCs have been suspended.